

On the Square

— B L O G —

15 Things to Find at The Salon Art + Design

Nov 09, 2018 | 17:22 EST By Jessica Helen Weinberg

20th Century Design

american antiques

American Art

American furniture

Fine Art

George Nakashima

Interior Design

Mid-Century Modern

Modern Ceramics + Glass

Modern Design

Modern Furniture

There is an unmistakable buzz that begins to ripple through the city once dawn sets over the Park Avenue Armory, hours before the opening of The Salon Art + Design show. Those of us who roam the exhibition early (while vacuums collect last minute crumbs and spotlights are tightened just a touch) can taste the fantasia of anticipation emanating off of the exquisite assembly of objects waiting to be admired.

Representing the world's finest galleries in historical, modern, emerging and contemporary furniture, as well as late 19th through 21st century art, the Salon Art + Design retains a level of refinement and invention that leaves something for every taste, mood and style. It is filled to the brim with unexpected "aha moments" and familiar favorites; a superb Warhol soup box hangs adjacent from an ancient marble statue of Hercules while taxidermy chickens and glowing butterflies light up their assigned table tops.

The Salon Art + Design 2018 boasts one memorable environment after the next. There is a lot to see. So, if you're looking to play a little high-end bingo with your friends...here are 15 things to find at this year's show!

11. Twenty First Gallery | New York

Babled Emmanuel, Osmosi Furniture 5, Console, Carrara C Marble, Hand Blown Murano Glass, 2013